Senate Votes On Revisions Of Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate adopted today an amendment to the civil rights bill guaranteeing jury trials in all criminal contempt cases arising from the measure, except in voting rights cases.

The vote was 51-48. The Senate action was a defeat for administration forces, but one which Senate leaders had somewhat discounted in advance. It may help them get cloture Wednesday, to end the Southern filibuster against the bill, by nailing down more Republican votes for the debate-limiting procedure.

It was the Senate's first vote in relation to the bill since May 6.

Later in the day it was to debate and act on an amendment by Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper, R-Iowa, dealing with school desegregation, and one by Sen. Norris Cotton, R-N.H., dealing with discrimination in employment.

Morton's proposal would guarantee a jury trial in all criminal contempt cases growing out of violations of injunctions obtained under all titles of the bill excepting voting rights.

The guarantee would apply particularly to the titles barring discrimination in public accommodations, employment, public facilities and schools.

On voting rights, the Kentuckyan would not disturb the 1957 Civil Rights Act. This gives a defendant in a criminal contempt case a jury trial only if the judge decides on a penalty exceeding 45 days in jail or a $3,000 fine.

The House bill now before the Senate does not give any right to a jury trial in criminal contempt except that, for public

Goldwater Has No Opposition By Eisenhower

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater left the 56th annual Governors Conference feeling confident that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower will not upset his bid for the GOP presidential nomination.

The silver-haired senator said in an interview Monday night that he is convinced the former president—about the only man who could do so—would not interfere in Goldwater's headlong rush toward the 655 delegate votes needed for the nomination.

Goldwater, given an ovation on his arrival at a conference dinner, stayed to hear Eisenhower speak. He talked briefly with Eisenhower and other party leaders while table-hopping, then flew back to Washington for action on the civil rights bill amendments.

Good Chance To Win
"I think President Eisenhower is neutral in this situation as he has been in the past," Goldwater said. "I do not think he has changed his position and I do not expect him to take any action that would be aimed at blocking me."

Goldwater said that in the absence of any expressed opposition from Eisenhower he is confident he will get the nomination at the mid-July San Francisco convention. He added that he thinks he has a good chance of defeating President Johnson in November.

"Wait until the people begin to assess Johnson's stand on this civil rights question and come to realize that his spending policies are out of line," the senator said. "Then we'll see whether we Republicans can beat him."

In a brief appearance as a conference guest, Goldwater avoided any conferences with Republican governors who have been complaining that his conservative views would make it difficult for him to carry their states as the GOP nominee.

Talks About Golf
Specifically, he did not make himself available for discussions with Govs. George Romney of Michigan, William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania and Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York. All three have said that Goldwater's positions on foreign and domestic policies would damage the Republican ticket in their important electoral vote states.

Goldwater indicated that his conference with Eisenhower did not get deeply into politics. He said the former president did not bring up political matters and he himself didn't volunteer any observations in that field.

"We talked mostly about golf and how to get rid of the bursters that has been bothering him," the senator said.

Eisenhower, who urged the governors to get behind a movement for the states to originate a constitutional amendment requiring balancing of the federal budget every two years, conferred with 15 of the 16 Republican governors on the political situation. Romney missed the meeting but flew in later.

Party Comes First
Gov. John Anderson Jr. of Kansas, conference chairman, said he and his colleagues "agreed that the Republican party and Republicans nationally are bigger than any individual."

This seemed to signal the general recognition that Goldwater is close to having the nomination in his pocket. Nevertheless,

Panama Leader Arias Shot By Party Associate

PANAMA (AP) — Shot down by a disgruntled party associate, Robert Arias was given a chance to live today but it still was a question whether the colorful politician will be paralyzed.

As police hunted the assailant, Arias' wife, British ballerina Dame Margot Fonteyn, said in Bath, England, she will fly to her husband's bedside Wednesday.

She has been a star at the Bath festival. She told the festival organizers she hoped to be back by Saturday for her last two performances. She had last seen her husband three weeks ago in Panama.

Dr. Antonio Gonzalez Revilla, who headed a team of neurosurgeons in a 2½-hour operation on Arias, said it would be 72 hours before he could say whether his 45-year-old patient would live or whether he would be paralyzed.

Police sought Alfredo Jimenez, a member of Arias' Panameña party and an old friend as the gunman.

It was the second political shooting since Panama's national elections May 10.

Panama's U.N. ambassador, Aquilino Boyd, fired two shots May 21 at the editor of a newspaper which accused Boyd of election fraud. The editor, Escalastico Calvo, received a minor wound.

Arias was in surgery twice Monday night over a period of almost eight hours. First, doctors removed bullets from his right arm and his right side. He was given blood transfusions. Then the surgeons removed a bullet which lodged against the spinal column and caused paralysis.

Dame Margot said that unless her husband had a relapse, she hoped to go ahead with her first of three performances with Rudolf Nureyev at the Bath Festival tonight.

Whips Out Pistol
The couple were last together three weeks ago when Dame Margot stopped for a few days in Panama en route to Europe after an Australian tour.

Arias was riding in a car driven by Reynaldo Medina Monday when they met Jimenez' car stopped at an intersection for a red light.

Witnesses said Jimenez spotted Arias, leaped from his car, whipped out a pistol and fired. "You're not going to cross me up," Medina said Jimenez shouted.

Arias and Jimenez, in his late 30s, ran as candidates for deputy and alternate deputy, respectively, in the National Assembly. Publication of the vote count Monday showed Jimenez elected, but as an alternate for another deputy and not Arias.

Speculation was that Jimenez believed he would have less chance to sit in the assembly than he would have had as Arias' alternate.

Michigan Gets 10.5 Million In Poverty Program
WASHINGTON (AP)—Michigan is to get a $10.5 million share of President Johnson's proposed $62.5 million anti-poverty program, Rep. James G. O'Hara, D-Mich., said Monday.

O'Hara said there also may be further funds for Michigan eventually.

O'Hara is a member of the House Education and Labor Committee which has approved the program and sent it to the House Rules Committee. The latter must clear the bill for debate on the House floor.

Johnson Sure Of Nomination

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has been quietly piling up Democratic delegate votes while the political spotlight focused on the Republican presidential nomination race. He already has more than half the number needed for his expected nomination.

The President now has 671 first-ballot votes stemming from primaries, state convention action or personally stated preference, an Associated Press survey showed today.

This is about 58 per cent of the 1,158½ votes required for the nomination at the Democratic convention in Atlantic City in August.

There has been little doubt that Johnson—although he has not yet announced his candidacy—will win the nomination on the first ballot, perhaps by acclamation.

Nixon Dinner At Muskegon Brings $40,000

MUSKEGON (AP)—Michigan Republicans exchanged cash for handshakes and political commentary from Richard M. Nixon Monday as the former vice president wound up a political swing through the state.

The GOP took in some $40,000 at a $100-a-plate dinner here Monday night, according to Bernard L. Snyder, Muskegon County GOP finance Committee chairman. Nixon was the principal speaker at the dinner.

Earlier at Grand Rapids, party faithful paid $25 a handshake to shake hands with Nixon.

Some 400 persons attended the Muskegon dinner and some 50 others who had paid admissions were sent to other restaurants because of a space lack.

Shakes Hands At Door

Nixon shook hands with each of the diners on their way out in lieu, he said, of taking up time with a speech he was giving in an arena next door.

Snyder said the dinner was geared to $100 a plate for the heads of households and $25 for each member of their families who attended.

George Dellinger, manager of Muskegon's L. C. Walker Arena, said a crowd of about 3,000 persons heard Nixon's after-dinner address. He said the average contribution was $1 each for admission. Sponsors earlier expected some 5,000 persons in the arena.

It was the climax to an overnight barnstorming tour of Michigan by the ex-vice president which began in Detroit Sunday night.

Flood Disaster Is Greatest In State History

GREAT FALLS, Mont. (AP)—Floods described as the worst in memory swept out of Montana's northwestern mountains Monday, killing at least eight persons, sweeping away dams and bridges and leaving hundreds of residents isolated. Rain pelted the area for the fifth straight day.

Authorities said the death toll included five members of one Blackfoot Indian family.

A girl was reported drowned in Valier, on the Indian reservation, and two motorists were killed when their vehicles plunged into raging streams.

In Glacier National Park, more than 200 persons were reported cut off by flooded roads or washed-out bridges. Many were park employees preparing for the summer tourist season.

Col. Howard McKinney of the Montana National Guard said the floods were the greatest natural disaster the state has ever suffered.

Loss In Millions
Damage estimates ranged into the millions of dollars.

Rescue workers were blocked in many places by washed-out bridges and long stretches of inundated highway. At least 20 bridges and four earthen dams were carried away by the pounding water.

Powered by near-record rains and late-melting mountain snowpacks, the floods hit by surprise.

Center of the flood area was northwest of Great Falls where the surging streams coursed through small communities and ranch homes.

Despite poor flying weather, one jet-powered Air Force helicopter penetrated the flood-stricken area.

With a sling and hoist, Air Force medics lifted seven persons from perches ranging from tree limbs to roof tops. An Air Force spokesman said one man was taken from a roof just as it started to go under water.

Destruction was heaviest in the small communities of Augusta, Choteau, Browning and Dupuyer.

High Walls Of Water
Dams burst near Choteau, Browning, Dupuyer and East Glacier sending walls of water up to 30 feet high over the sparsely populated area.

Col. McKinney set up a rescue operations center in Helena, the state capital, after acting Gov. Dave Manning declared the floods a state emergency. Gov. Tim Babcock was in Cleveland at the National Governors Conference.

In hard-hit Choteau, all 2,000 residents left their homes to seek shelter overnight in a church and country club on higher ground.

Nearly 1,000 persons were housed in emergency accommodations in Great Falls.

Typhoid vaccine was dispatched to a number of cities where community drinking water was polluted by floodwaters. The dams that broke at Choteau and East Glacier held city water supplies.

West of Dupuyer, the Swift Reservoir dam gave way, turning normally docile Birch Creek into a mile-wide river.

Jim Farrar of Shelby watched 15 horses hurled into a ravine by the torrent. Moments later it caught a herd of cattle and churned them under.

Whole Family Missing
West of Browning, on the Blackfoot Reservation, a dam on Two Medicine Creek burst and water cascaded over Indian dwellings. Five members of a family named Grant were missing.

A policeman in Browning said witnesses saw the family swept away in a surge of water as they tried to clamber onto a pickup truck. The family included an elderly woman. The truck and bodies were not recovered.

The main floods were on the Sun River, rising in mountains west of Great Falls, and on the Marias River, with tributaries in Glacier National Park.

Both the Sun and Marias fed into the Missouri River. Upstream gates at Canyon Ferry Dam near Helena were closed to lower the pressure on the fast-rising Missouri.

The Sun, which joins the Missouri at Great Falls, was expected to reach a crest of 20 feet—more than eight feet above flood stage—late today at Great Falls. This would cause lowland flooding surpassing a 153 flood that caused millions of dollars damage.

Great Falls, with 70,000 residents, is Montana's largest city.

Back-To-Work Vote Taken In Hillsdale Strike

HILLSDALE, Mich. (AP) — Workers at the strife-torn Essex Wire Corp. voted today to hold a back-to-work vote today in the wake of a warning from Gov. George W. Romney that settlement of the 102-day-old, violence-ridden strike is of vital interest to the state.

Officials of Essex and of the International Union of Electrical Workers, AFL - CIO, expressed optimism that the 180 strikers would approve the modified agreement worked out Monday at a six-hour meeting with federal and state mediators in Detroit.

Gov. Romney made a personal appeal to the disputants to "remember that the public interest is of greater importance than that of either party."

Frank Gallucci, vice president and legal representative of Essex, and Robert Klingensmith, administrative aide to IUE President James Carey, expressed confidence the modified agreement would be accepted at the mid-afternoon voting session today.

Gov. Romney, Carey and top officials of Essex hammered out broad outlines of a proposed new contract at an all-night session in the governor's office in Lansing last Saturday. Members of the striking IUE Local 810 at Hillsdale decided Sunday not to take a ratification vote, pending clarification of issues, and sent the pact back to the local's bargaining committee.

Strike Ties Up Ohio Dailies
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Most of the television and radio stations in Ohio's capital city were beeping up their news coverage today to compensate for the loss of Columbus' two strikebound newspapers.

As the strike against Dispatch Printing Co., which prints the morning Citizen-Journal and the afternoon Dispatch, went into its second day, the city's electronic media were adding numerous newscasts and expanding present ones.

The strike began at 5 a.m. Monday when the Printers' and Mailers' unions set up picket lines around the Dispatch building.

Shortly afterwards, the Dispatch announced it was suspending publication, and the Citizen-Journal, a Scripps - Howard paper, followed suit later in the day after publishing its Monday morning edition.

The Dispatch has a circulation of 200,000 daily and 300,000 Sunday, while the Citizen-Journal's six-day-a-week circulation is 100,000.

The Mailers' and Printers' contracts with Dispatch Printing Co. expired Jan. 2, but employees remained on their jobs during continuing negotiations.

Union officials said their members decided to strike because of dissatisfaction with progress of negotiations.

Red Cross Bid For Tornado Aid Fund Rejected
MOUNT CLEMENS (AP) — Trustees of the Tornado Disaster Relief Fund for Chesterfield Township rejected Red Cross request for a share of the money Monday.

The Macomb County Red Cross chapter asked for between $70,000 and $80,000. The fund contains $161,870. It was created through public subscription after the May 8 tornado which killed 11 persons and injured hundreds while destroying many homes.

The Red Cross request was rejected by a 4-1 vote. The one dissent was cast by the Red Cross representative among the trustees. The Red Cross asked for reimbursement of its tornado relief expenses.

Declaring himself "shocked" at the Red Cross request, fund chairman Carl Brandenburg, township supervisor, said the relief fund is regarded as a supplement to Red Cross aid.

Escanaba Area Youth Sought

Youth Work Camp To Help At Hannahville

Rev. Robert S. Shank, executive director of the American Indian Foundation of Grosse Ile, Mich., is bringing 15 high school students to the Hannahville Indian Reservation at Harris July 1-31 to work on a rehabilitation project.

The young people — sophomores, juniors and seniors — will pay $95 each for the privilege of working on the project and they will receive no pay.

A matching group of a dozen or so Escanaba Area high school students who will pay $15 each to participate in the same project is being sought by the Rev. Ben Helmer, pastor of St. Stephens Episcopal Church of Escanaba. They should apply to him for enrollment.

The Grosse Ile male students will be housed in the former rectory at St. Stephens Church here during the work camp period and the girls will be housed in private homes in Escanaba. They will be taken the 10 miles to Hannahville to work each day.

The project was suggested to the American Indian Foundation by Lawrence J. Kozlowski, of Ashland, Wis., agency assistant superintendent, Bureau of Indian Affairs of the U. S. Department of the Interior.

The American Indian Foundation president is the Most Rev. Archie H. Crowley, suffragan bishop of Michigan of the Episcopal Church, and Rev. Shank is an Episcopal clergyman, but the young people that the project will bring to Hannahville are members of the Catholic, Presbyterian, Episcopalian and other faiths. The sponsoring organization is not sectarian.

The American Indian Foundation, said Mr. Shank, was founded in 1955 to help the health, education and welfare of the North American Indians. It has a scholarship program that is providing higher education for many Indians and it has health and welfare programs.

The work camp planned at Hannahville is only a beginning on a project and the Indians there will decide on what is to be done. "We hope to convert the former Catholic chapel into community hall for the newly formed Indian Council headed by Peter Sagataw, but permission will have to be arranged," said Mr. Shank. Under the Indian Bureau Reorganization Act it is necessary to have Indian community organization for governmental benefits.

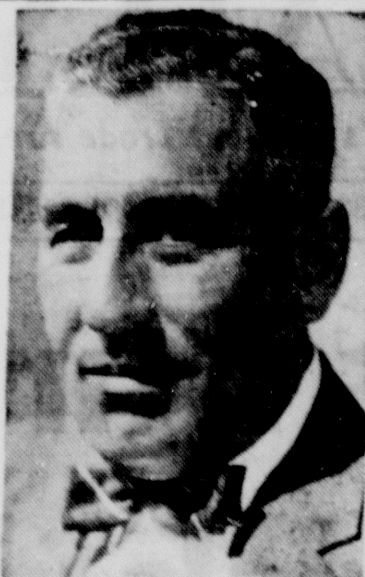

(The former community house at the reservation is now occupied by Peter Meshigadug and not available for meetings.)

The camp workshop will put the young people to work cleaning up litter, and repairing the dilapidated homes of the reservation, most of which are in need of maintenance work.

The Hannahville Reservation is home to a colony of about 140 Potawatomi Indians in 27 families. The group's ancestors left their homeland below Lake Michigan when the Federal Government was breaking up the tribes in the last century and sending them off to reservations in Kansas.

A band of Potawatomi made its way up the west shore of Lake Michigan and found sanctuary in the forest on the Big Cedar River in Menominee County. It moved gradually upstream, finally settled on the lands it occupies today in the Harris area. The government eventually set aside 3,559 acres there for the use of the band. It is in several segments and irregularly shaped, largely denuded of merchantable timber and providing a poor living for the Indians, who are wards of a government welfare program.

"A chief aim of the project," said Mr. Shank, "is to awaken the public to the Indian problem."

Few Non-Whites In Govt. Jobs

State Civil Service employment of non-whites exceeds the ratio of non-white population in major urban centers in Michigan but ranks slightly below the statewide non-white population average according to a Michigan Civil Service Commission employment census released today.

The study showed the median salary for white employees was $5,513 compared to $4,714 for non-whites, but that non-whites were found in all but the two top civil service job levels, although in proportionately smaller numbers. It disclosed that 21 per cent of the non-white employees in the civil service had been promoted since taking state jobs compared to 39 per cent of the whites.

The report noted that U. S. Census figures show there are 26 times as many white as non-white college graduates from which to recruit in Michigan and 16 times as many white high school graduates, and that higher education is a necessity for entry into most technical, professional, and higher level jobs in the state service.

The Commission said it felt the statistics neither "proved nor disproved" racial discrimination existed in state employment.

The 1960 census showed that only 3 counties in the Upper Peninsula had non-white civil service employees. They were Delta, Chippewa and Luce, and their single non-white employee each, gave them non-white employment rates of 0.7 per cent, 2.2 per cent and 0.2 per cent, respectively.

The civil service employment of the three counties were: Delta, 149 whites, Chippewa 44 whites, Luce 658 whites (at Newberry State Hospital chiefly.)

The other all-white civil service employment in U. P. counties included: Alger, 40; Baraga, 68; Dickinson, 38; Gogebic, 39; Houghton, 131; Iron, 61; Keweenaw, 6; Mackinac, 89; Marquette, 425; Menominee, 35; Ontonagon, 33 and Schoolcraft 25.

By contrast with the low non-white government employment in the U. P., the Lower Peninsula record included: Wayne (Detroit) County, 3,131 non-white government workers and 1,589 non-whites among them; Washtenaw (Ann Arbor) had the second largest number of non-whites in government jobs, 203 out of 1,197; Ingham (Lansing) had 197 in 7,100 and Oakland (Pontiac) 187 out of 1,119.

Wrecked Negro Church Opens

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—The glass-enclosed message board outside the Sixteenth Street Baptist church still carried the date of Sept. 15, 1963. But a new day had dawned for the little brick church.

Sunday, the congregation returned to the Negro church that was wrecked by a bomb last Sept. 15. Four girls were killed and 19 other persons were injured in the explosion.

The church was rebuilt with offerings from around the world of more than $200,000.

The Rev. Dr. H. O. Hester of Montgomery, Ala., a white clergyman, delivered the principal sermon.

The congregation gathered outside and was led into the church by the pastor, the Rev. John H. Cross.

Fourteen persons were baptized. Sunday School services were held in the basement where the children died and most of the injured received their wounds in that explosion last year.

Choo-Choo Venture

The Lake Superior & Ishpeming Railroad built the line in 1908 to haul logs, pulpwood and lumber from the Big Bay area down to Marquette and it operated until 1957, after which there was not enough traffic to support its operation. But by some great good strike of luck the rails weren't torn up, as they usually are when the trains stop rolling.

They were still there when John Zerbel got the itch to start a steam railroad to serve recreation seekers and steam railroad buffs. After years of work (and trial of his friendship with many people who thought that the boys with the white jackets should grab him) a package was put together and the Marquette-Huron Mtn. Railroad was organized as a unit of Thunder Bay Recreations, Inc.

Zerbel conceived Thunder Bay as a sort of Super-Iceland, a Northern Disneyland offering recreation around the year in the beautiful Lake Superior Country. The LS&I joined the venture, and the Area Redevelopment Administration, and private investors and on Saturday Marquette-Huron Mtn. trains start running regular schedules between the Presque Isle station at Marquette and Thunder Bay.

On the maps, it's still Big Bay, not Thunder Bay, but the promoters preferred the name that John Voelker gave to the hotel there in "Anatomy of a Murder," his best-selling novel about the murder of Big Mike Chenoweth at Big Bay.

Thunder Bay Recreations had a prelude party on its train last Saturday for a throng in Gay 90s dress from Marquette. They helped the photographers with colorful pictures at all stages of the trip and had a lot of fun in the process. Also helping were people in classic cars led by a 1914 Model T Ford which raced the train all the way to Thunder Bay.

The same nostalgic delight in old things that made its owners restore the old Ford is going to make a future for the Marquette-Huron Mtn. Railroad. Its predecessor folded when the logs ran out, but as long as there are people there should be customers for this for-fun-only railroad that runs from the shadow of the great ore dock at Presque Isle through a beautifully forested area to the heights above Lake Independence where the village of Big Bay looks down on the remnants of the great Ford sawmill there.

It's not many years since the steam trains were running in the Upper Peninsula and the area once had much more railroad trackage than some Western states. The Big Bay line is a gem of scenic attraction and its 25 miles of track and bridges have been rehabilitated and four steam locomotives acquired and conditioned.

Adults should have known, when they saw their children showing such a great preference for steam locomotives in their toy railroads over modern diesel engines that it was only a question of time before the steam trains were back. They are as indispensable as antique furniture, or classic cars, or period costumes in this nostalgic nation which takes increasing delight in Americana.

J. H. (Bill) Kline, retired president of the LS&I, says this is the most ambitious standard gauge steam railroad restoration in America. It should become a "must" for recreational visitors to the Midwest and the Upper Peninsula and should draw people from afar. Harold Diehm of the Flint Journal was on the prelude train, inhaling train smoke as though it were Chanel No. 5 and hoping to get a cinder in his eye and steam train euphoria. He looked as happy as a kid abandoned overnight in a candy shop. He's one of a great number of men who think that we should bring back the horse, the steam train and the butter churn.

The railroad is a huge recreational asset to the Upper Peninsula. It offers not only rides through wonderland and a spinal column on which a series of recreational developments will be made, but also a lodge — the Thunder Bay Railroaders Club — whose members can ride and work on the railroad. This may sound a little nutty to people who wouldn't swap a jet plane for a steam train, but it is ambrosia for a group of would-be railroad men as piliated as circus fans, duck hunters or chess players.

In the U. P. we say that if you haven't visited Isle Royale, Brockway, the Pictured Rocks, the Tahquamenon, an iron mine and a copper mine, the Sault Locks and Mackinac you haven't seen the Upper Peninsula. And now we must add the Marquette-Huron Mtn. Railroad.

The Doctor Says: Emphysema Not Contagious

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt.

Q — Is emphysema contagious or is it an allergy? Is there any cure?

A — Emphysema is a very common and a very chronic lung ailment in persons over 50. It is caused by air being trapped in the lungs due to a valve-like obstruction. This obstruction occurs chiefly in heavy smokers, persons with chronic bronchitis and those who live in areas of extreme air pollution. It is not contagious and not an allergy. Its effects are sometimes similar to those of asthma.

Although there is no cure, the best treatment is early diagnosis. This will enable your doctor to prevent serious lung damage. If you have emphysema you should report to your doctor whenever you get a cold or other acute disease of the nose or lungs. It is helpful to quit smoking and to keep fit through moderate, but regular exercise. If your work requires you to breathe dusty or sooty air, you can prolong your life by wearing a respirator or changing your occupation.

Your doctor can help you by giving you anti-biotics for some types of complicating infection. Other drugs, such as isoproterenol, will dilate the blocked air passages. Breathing exercises (humming, laughing and singing) are often useful.

Even victims with far advanced emphysema can be helped. Vanille diethylamide, the comet of 1811, had a diameter of 1,225,000 miles — greater than the sun itself.

The largest comet observed, the comet of 1811, had a diameter of 1,225,000 miles — greater than the sun itself.

"You Must Remember, The Poor Kid Grew Up Without Love!"

Washington Comment

By RAY CROMLEY
WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Now that Nehru has died, some U. S. analysts think:

India will shift a little to the right economically. There will be a gradual increase in encouragement for private business and industry.

U. S. businessmen may find conditions slightly better and restrictions somewhat less burdensome.

The government will still be left of center.

There won't be any more help from India than in the past for the U. S. stand in Laos or in South Viet Nam or in the United Nations. Though strongly anti-Communist China at home, India isn't likely even to take a public stand against Red aggression in Laos or South Viet Nam. She will be critical of U. S. action in the two countries.

If asked to take more of a leadership role in protecting Southeast Asia from the Chinese Reds, India will tell the United States she has more than she can handle at home protecting her own borders.

The India ruling group will not trust any alliances. Soviet Russia will still be courted as an ally to counter the power of Red China. Nikita Khrushchev will likely visit India late this year.

There may be a slight improvement in India's relations with the United States, but not enough to weaken her relations with the Russians.

The quarrel with Pakistan over possession of the State of Kashmir may worsen.

The New Indian defense build-up will continue, with the Indians leaning heavily on the United States and expectantly on the Soviet Union for aid.

India plans to have five new mountain divisions in service by the end of 1964.

(The United States will dole out military aid to India cautiously so as not to upset the India-Pakistan military balance of power.)

Indian Communists may find the going a little rougher. The post-Nehru leaders have favored strong anti-Communist measures in the past.

Extreme-leftist V. K. Krishna Menon, former defense minister and ambassador to the United Nations who was once such a thorn in the side of the United States, will be kept from any position of power.

The men who will wield influence are basically political and economic technicians. They won't rule with the flair of Nehru or wear the mantle of public worship he inherited from Gandhi.

As some U. S. analysts see it, the new Indian government will be a government of "moderates."

The men at the top will have to win the support of a variety of groups. That will mean more in government compromising. It will keep India from strong shifts in any direction.

Escanaba Tour For Members Of Rock 4-H Club

ROCK—The Rock 4-H club members enjoyed an educational tour of Escanaba recently.

Leaving Rock at 9 a. m., their first stop was the Escanaba generating station. After leaving the station, they watched a coal boat being unloaded. The next stop was at Ford River at the home of Mrs. William Taylor. She showed her bird nets, how birds are banded and she also had stuffed birds for the members to see. She explained the importance of bird banding, and asked that anyone finding a bird with a band, send in the numbers either to her or to Wildlife, Washington 25, D. C.

After an outdoor meal at Ludington Park, the group went on a short shopping trip in Escanaba. The next stop was the Escanaba Daily Press where the tour included the news room and learned how the newspaper is made and printed, etc. They also visited the WLST radio station. The Historical Museum was the next stop, then on to the water filtration plant, where the group saw how water was purified.

The last stop was at Wickert's greenhouse where most of the members bought plants for their mothers in addition to making a tour of the greenhouse.

Members who went on the tour were Debra Sharkey, Debra Trombly, Cheryl Larson, Tina Mankiewicz, Nancy Weldum, Sally Waak, Susan Lehto, Susan Koski, and Cynthia Niemi. Mrs. Albert Weldum and Mrs. Victor Mankiewicz accompanied them.

The next business meeting will be at the club house Wednesday, June 10, at 7 p. m. Each member is to write a short summary of the trip and save some of the best pictures. The club hopes to make a scrapbook of different places the 4-H members have visited in Michigan, or will visit in the future, as sort of a study of Michigan.

Photography members met at the Weldum home Wednesday afternoon for a lesson and also to take pictures of animals. Mrs. Weldum is leader, with Nancy Weldum as junior leaders. Members in photography are Cheryl Larson, Pamela Sharkey and Cynthia Niemi, second year, and Debra Sharkey, Susan Koski and Susan Lehto, first year.

DETROIT (AP) — Striking Sheet Metal Workers Local 80 was sued for $10,000 Monday by the Detroit Sheet Metal Employers Association, a contractors group. The association charged the union with violating an exclusive bargaining agreement by signing separate contracts with individual contractors during its 40-day strike.

FLINT (AP) — Charles H. Clarke, a Wayne State University law professor, has filed a $50,000 damage suit against the City of Flint. He claims Flint refused to pay an $8,500 fee for helping prepare a State Supreme Court case in a $5 million litigation over back pay for city firemen. The city won the case, and offered to pay Clarke about half of what he asked, he charged.

HIGHLAND PARK (AP) — The City Council Monday approved a $2.75 million interchange of the new Chrysler and Davison Freeways. Highland Park will pay $61,000 of the cost of the project which is 90 per cent subsidized by the Federal government.

SAGINAW (AP) — The City Council Monday turned down a $1.46 million proposal for across the board pay hikes for city employees, including a 15 per cent raise for policemen which Castro, would have placed the department among the highest paid in the nation for cities of comparable size.

BAY CITY (AP) — U. S. District Judge Stephen J. Roth Monday sentenced John Botchis, 27, of Detroit, to two years imprisonment for possession of counterfeit $20 bills. He was arrested in Flint along with six other men on similar charges.

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — Robert A. Dunham, 16, of Rural Buckley, drowned Monday in Fish Lake, about 18 miles south of here. Grand Traverse County Sheriff's deputies said.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Congressional group, including Rep. Elford A. Cederberg, R-Mich., urged at a hearing Monday that the domestic sugar beet annual marketing quota be increased.

Dr. Elbert V. Bowden, professor of economics at Elmira College, Elmira, N. Y., and newly appointed director of the Upper Peninsula Committee on Area Problems (UPCAP), will be featured speaker at the Thursday evening banquet session of the 26th annual Upper Peninsula convention of the Michigan Municipal League at Ironwood, June 11-12.

Dr. Bowden will speak to mayors, village presidents, councilmen and other elected and appointed officials from League cities and villages in the League's Region 10 on the subject of the economic future of the Upper Peninsula and the role of the municipal official.

City Commissioner Harold Vanlerbergh, Escanaba, will be the moderator.

Lives Of Famous Often A Mess

Dear Ann Landers: Thanks for straightening me out. I always thought Winston Churchill and the late General Douglas MacArthur were great men, but after reading the column in which you O. K'd the nutty theory that smoking to an adult is what a pacifier is to an infant I have changed my mind. According to your theory these men were actually grown-up babies.

The person who wrote said small children can suck their thumbs and drag a dirty blanket around but adults would be led off to the loony bin if they did such things, so smoking is their substitute.

It's difficult to understand how grown-up babies could become world leaders. Since you are so doggone smart I'd appreciate your explanation.

Thanks for reading this letter, which I'm sure will get no further than the wastebasket. — JHP OF RICHMOND.

Dear JHP: Mental capacity and leadership qualities do not equate with emotional stability. (Hitler, Mussolini, Stalin, Castro.) Many leaders in the fields of science, art, medicine, and finance were, and are, brilliant thinkers but at the personal level their lives were and are a mess.

History is replete with examples of accomplished people who were so poorly adjusted that they eventually killed themselves with the help of a high window, a gun, a bottle or the gas pipe.

Dear Ann Landers: Recently you printed a letter from a teen-ager who said she had a million freckles and hated every one of them. You told her about sandpaper surgery, warned against quacks and so on. Will you please print this letter and perhaps wake up some of these foolish kids? What in the world is wrong with freckles? The lovely woman to whom I have been married for over 15 years has a million freckles and I love every one of them. In fact, her freckles are what attracted me when we met at an Epworth League picnic 20 years ago.

Freckles are part of a girl's personality. They give her that natural, sun-kissed look. Freckles are wholesome, out-doorish, frank and honest. Any girl who would bleach a freckle, at tempt to cover it with heavy make-up or, heaven forbid, resort to surgery has rocks in her head. VOICE OF DISSENT.

Dear Voice: Thanks for the greatest testimonial for freckles since Doris Day lugged her first million dollars to the bank. Several men (no women) wrote to express the same point of view, but you did it most convincingly.

Dear Ann Landers: That letter from the woman who was mad at her rich aunt who shopped in August for Christmas gifts and then ended up giving faded, shopworn, marked-down "bargains" made me laugh. I have a friend who does something similar. It used to burn me up, but after reading that letter I see the humor in my own situation and feel a great deal better about it.

My friend is a grand dame of considerable means. She no longer drives her own car so I frequently take her to the beauty shop, to club meetings and to church. Every Christmas it's the same old story. With tears in her eyes she says, "I love you too dearly to insult you with a commercial gift. I want you to have something of sentimental value." She then hands me an old stuff box her grandfather used, or a piece of needlepoint that has been sitting around for 105 years. Everyone of her gifts has gone into the attic or the trash can.

Your column is a great deal more than entertainment. It helps people get a fresh perspective. Thank you for it. — AVID FAN.

Parents are people — they can be right and they can be wrong. To help understand their viewpoint and to promote harmony at home, write for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How To Live With Your Parents," enclosing with your request 20c in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Track Is Shortened Fair Fat Stock Sale Is Growing

The Board of Managers of the U. P. State Fair meeting under the chairmanship of Kemp Brown of Munising reviewed the program for the 1964 Fair here on Saturday.

The Fair will be held August 18-23 and Manager Ray LaPorte told the board that entries in the fat stock show may total 45 animals this year, compared with 29 in 1963. These cattle are sold at auction at the fair, although the Fair Board is considering dropping the program after this year's sale. It proposes to give more emphasis to feeder calf promotions than to fat stock.

Beef feeder calf production is growing in the U. P. and proving to be a source of income for farmers of the area.

LaPorte reviewed the fair's position in the state's restructuring of agencies, proposal to widen the fair midway, negotiations for use of propane gas by stands serving food, and changes to effect savings in 1964 Fair premiums.

The board reviewed the new policy on automobile stickers during Fair Week. All cattle exhibitors, employees, the entire personnel (including the Board of Managers) will be required to pay for their car stickers beginning this year. The Board also voted to eliminate the practice of issuing complimentary grandstand tickets to employees and other groups in an effort to boost grandstand receipts.

In other actions approval was given to the Church of Christ to hold tent meetings on the fairgrounds in July, and a request from the Escanaba Racing Assn. to hold stock car races on the quarter-mile track used for automobile racing.

The board decided as a safety measure to allow widening the midway in the area of the Industrial Building where traffic is congested on peak days.

The Board believes that the space gained through its abandonment last fall of the half-mile track could be used for parking and that the maintenance of a smaller track would result in considerable saving to the fair.

Also attending the meeting were Ralph C. Fuller, Newberry and Carl Hansen, Wells.

U.P. Delinquency To Get Review In Lansing Meet

Wayne St. Pierre is leaving Wednesday to attend a Governor's Conference on Juvenile Delinquency and Community Action at the Lansing Civic Center on Thursday.

The conference will review what is being done in representative community programs and look at state-federal programs that appear significant for Michigan.

St. Pierre said that there is current pressure in the state for more institutions for the care of delinquent youth, but that those that the state has haven't solved its problems in this field.

St. Pierre said that Upper Peninsula probate (juvenile court) judges report that hard core juvenile crimes in the U.P. are not comparable with that in metropolitan areas of the Lower Peninsula.

HIS THIRD CADILLAC... HIS FIRST NEW ONE

This man is enjoying his first brand-new Cadillac—after becoming acquainted with the car's unsurpassed value by twice buying used Cadillacs.

He learned that a late model used Cadillac gave him more standard equipment and engineering advancements than most new cars.

First of all, while Cadillac's styling was continually refined, it never lost the clean, dignified look that says Cadillac and Cadillac alone. The smooth, quiet performance and complete reliability of his used Cadillac was a constant source of enjoyment. Then, too, he and his family enjoyed luxury and comfort to a degree reserved exclusively for Cadillac owners.

The pride of ownership of so distinctive a car was a never-ending pleasure, for he had the satisfaction—always—of knowing he drove the finest.

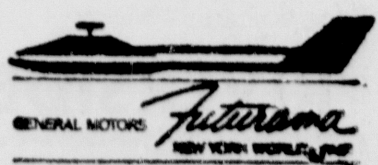

When it came time to trade his previously owned Cadillac for a later model, he found its value had held remarkably high... and returned a substantial part of his original investment.

So what could be more natural—or wise—than to make the eventual move to a new Cadillac?

New or used, there is no finer motoring investment than a Cadillac. And new or used, your authorized dealer has one to fit any budget. There's never been a better time to invest in the finest of them all.

Reds Capture U.S. Jet Pilot

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—The Communist Pathet Lao was reported today to have captured a U.S. Navy jet pilot shot down on a photo-reconnaissance mission over the jungles of central Laos.

Reliable sources said the Pathet Lao headquarters in Khang Khay informed its officials in Vientiane of the capture of Charles F. Klusmann, 30, of San Diego, Calif., who had parachuted from his Crusader jet fighter on Saturday.

Pathet Lao officials in Vientiane declined to confirm the report. An air search continued for Klusmann.

A U.S. helicopter rescued Cmdr. Doyle W. Lynn of La Mesa, Calif., Monday and flew him back to the aircraft carrier Kitty Hawk in the South China Sea. Lynn's Crusader was hit Sunday while he was escorting a reconnaissance mission.

The Pathet Lao has held another American flier, a civilian, for nine months.

Eugene Debruin of Kaukauna, Wis., a flier for the Air America charter company, was captured last September when his transport plane was shot down in southern Laos.

The Northern student, closing an excellent high school career, topped off his list of activities, including junior class council representative and president, Latin Club, Boys' State and president of MLISC with the distinction of being elected senior class president for two semesters. He is the holder of a 4.0 grade point average and a life member of C. S. F.

Just recently he received a scholarship to Stanford University and was given an appointment to the Air Force Academy and is a finalist for a Regent's Scholarship at Berkeley. He also was winner of a state scholarship.

He and other finalists were guests of Governor Edmund G. Brown during a capitol visit.

Schoolcraft To Join Delta In School District

Voters in the City of Manistique Monday elected Norman W. Jahn to a four year term on the Manistique Board of Education on a vote of 473 to 286 for James M. Denman. Jahn carried both precincts in the city.

Manistique and Schoolcraft County voters approved a proposal to annex to Delta County to form an Intermediate School District under new Michigan legislation. The vote was 859 in favor and 376 against.

The proposal carried in all precincts except Mueller (Green School) Township, where the vote was 28 to 36.

The merger is necessary to meet state requirements that districts with less than 5,000 school population must join other districts to qualify for state school aid. Within 14 days Schoolcraft County will certify to Delta County the results of the election and after an audit of the Schoolcraft County School District records the county school district will be assumed by Delta County.

The change means that Mrs. Berta Hough, Schoolcraft county school superintendent since 1952, will be out of a job evenueally. A veteran school teacher in this area, she will remain in the superintendent's office through the transition period. After that Hagle Quarnstrom, Delta County superintendent, will administer the two-county district.

The change affects only the county school superintendent's office, not the school districts within the counties with superintendents. Each county will get $3,500 additional state aid for three years to launch the new program.

Glodwater Has No Opposition By Eisenhower

Rockefeller is reported to have told Eisenhower that with the senator on top of the ticket the result might be disastrous in New York, Ohio and Illinois. Scranton and Romney already have made it plain they have similar fears in Pennsylvania and Michigan.

Rockefeller, who absorbed a fateful licking from Goldwater in last week's California presidential primary, dropped by the senator's table during the dinner.

"Congratulations on that California victory," Rockefeller said. "You and I were the only ones who stuck it out."

Judge Clears Amish Parents

HILLSDALE (AP)—A judge threw out of court Monday criminal charges against 11 Amish parents accused of violating Michigan's compulsory school attendance law.

In dismissing the suit, Hillsdale County Circuit Judge Robert McIntyre said he found no criminal intent in the actions of the Amish, who have sent their 52 children to schools lacking certified teachers.

The judge ordered Justice of the Peace Alfred Wagner of Camden Township to dismiss the complaint and warrant against the parents because the constitutional issues involved were not within the competence of the lower court.

The dispute centered around the fact that the southern lower Michigan Amish community was using as teachers two Amish teenagers, neither of whom went beyond the eighth grade—in accordance with their religion—and therefore were not qualified in the eyes of the state.

In effect, the state charged, the 52 Amish children were not attending school at all.

Most people don't realize how low Chrysler's new prices really are. Do you?

We find that many people think a Chrysler is a high-priced car.

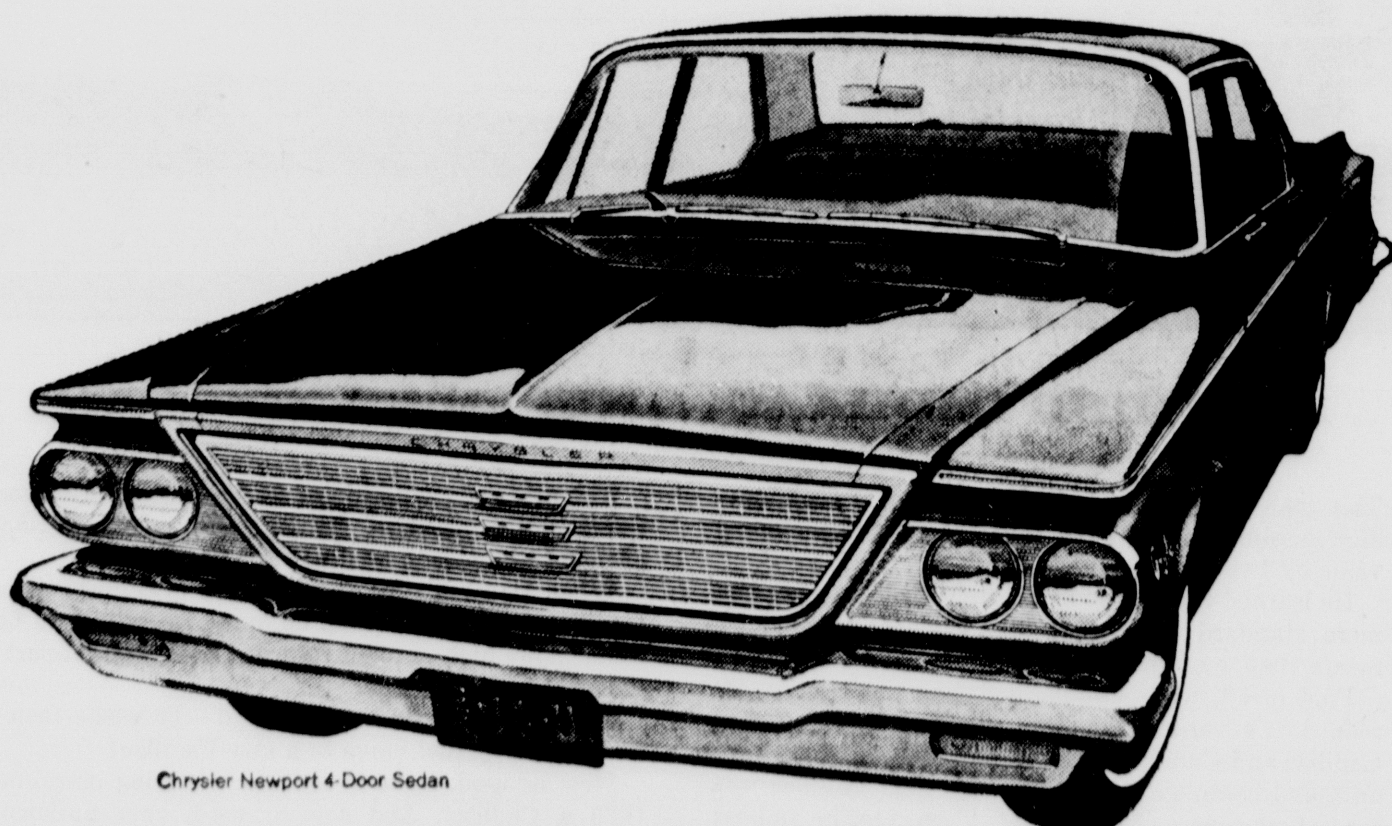

Quite frankly, some models are.

But what many people don't realize is that some Chrysler models are actually priced lower than a small car equipped the way you'd want it.

Take the Chrysler Newport sedan. Manufacturer's suggested retail price is only $2901, not including the variables like state and local taxes, destination charges and optional equipment. That's $2901—which includes such good things as a 361-cubic-inch V-8. The kind of engine you'd pay extra for on a smaller car.

Interesting, isn't it?

Then why stick with the smaller jobs? They can't muster the room, the ride, the luxury or the performance you really want—no matter how many extra-cost options you put on them.

Pesticides Are Safe When Properly Used

Be careful with pesticides, especially around children. But don't overlook the 1,000 other dangerous chemicals that have been available around the home long before DDT and other sprays came on the market.

J. L. Heirman, Delta County Extension director, points out that pesticides rank well below such potent "killers" as aspirin, bleachers, disinfectants, certain patent medicines, drain cleaners, kerosene and others. Total deaths from pesticides have been running between 80 to 160 a year—all from improper applications or handling of compounds containing insecticides.

None of these deaths can be attributed to the consumption of pesticide-contaminated food. Extreme care should be taken with all poisons, especially those that are so familiar that some folks forget their danger, said Heirman.

The Michigan Department of Health says most of injury or death cases among children coming in contact with pesticides can be avoided simply by keeping the chemicals under lock and key. Care should also be taken to keep children out of reach of the poisons while being used, and empty containers should be disposed of safely.

"Research has virtually eliminated the danger of residues from correctly applied pesticides."

Ordinance Gets Commission Ok

The Gladstone City Commission adopted the appropriation ordinance for the 1964-65 budget and accepted the bid of the Sahara Coal Company of Harrisburg, Ill., for power plant coal at their regular meeting Monday evening at the City Hall.

A small group of interested taxpayers, headed by Les Boman, appeared before the commission to have the one mill tax levy to provide an industrial development fund for the city explained. After being told the fund would be entirely separate of the Industrial Development Corp., previously established in Gladstone, the young men were in agreement with the commission.

Rotary Has Safety Program

Sgt. Russell Gates, Michigan State Police officer from Marquette spoke for Rotary Monday, outlining traffic safety tips and general enforcement problems.

Experience, he said, has shown good, sound traffic enforcement reduces the number and severity of accidents. He cited the last bank robbery with a killing in Michigan was in 1928.

"If a bank robbery occurs, 'Everyone is up in arms,' but since 1928, there have been 40,000 killed in highway accidents. In 85 per cent of accidents, human failure or misbehavior is a factor, he said. Each person should help by policing himself in his driving, he added.

He listed these safe driving tips:

- (1) Be sure your car, especially brakes, lights, steering and tires are in good working order.
- (2) Drive reasonable speeds, not over the posted limits, and below these when special conditions such as bad weather, children playing, make extra caution necessary.
- (3) Don't drive when you are fatigued or have been drinking. If monotony sets in on expressway driving, pull off to a rest stop. A plane is being used to patrol expressways with patrol cars. Put up the hood if you have car trouble and wait for the patrol. Don't try to flag traffic or walk on the expressways.
- (4) Watch all signs and signals and obey them.
- (5) Drive the way you'd expect or want the other person to do. Drive safely — the life you save may be your own.

Koufax Adds Four More Hitless Innings; Gets 100th Career Decision

By The Associated Press

Sandy Koufax, the Los Angeles Dodgers left-hander who makes a habit of being stingy with base hits took a swipe at a second straight no-hitter Monday night and for four innings he had staticians scrambling for their record books.

Koufax retired the first 12 Reds he faced but No. 13, Deron Johnson, broke the spell with a home run. With the pressure off, Koufax gave up three more hits en route to his 100th career victory.

Sandy, whose third no-hitter came against Philadelphia last week, scored the tying run in the fifth when he forced Dick Tracewski who had walked, moved up on Maury Wills' single and scored on Willie Davis' hit.

John Roseboro doubled home Tommy Davis with two out in the sixth to win it.

The only pitcher ever to put together back-to-back no-hitters was Johnny VanderMeer, who did it in 1938.

And, interestingly, VanderMeer hurled for the Reds and pitched his second no-hitter against the Dodgers.

Elsewhere in Monday's abbreviated major league schedule, Milwaukee whipped Houston 5-3 as Hank Aaron tagged a two-run homer, Cleveland's Leon Wagner took the major league RBI lead with a two-run homer and a run-producing single as the Indians topped Los Angeles 6-3. Jim King smashed three home runs but Washington bowed to Kansas City 5-4 and Detroit outslugged Minnesota 10-5.

The St. Louis at San Francisco National League afternoon game was rained out.

Koufax, bringing his record to 7-4 with his third consecutive victory, also was touched for a ninth-inning single by Johnson and two hits by Steve Boros.

Boros beat out a bunt in the fifth and singled in the eighth.

Besides trying for a second straight no-hitter, Koufax also was trying to set a record by striking out 10 or more batters in a single game for the 55th time in his career. The record of 54 is shared by Bob Feller and Rube Waddell. Koufax, however, struck out only five.

Felipe Alou opened the Braves' first with a double. One out later, Aaron connected off Hal Brown, 1-6, and Milwaukee never trailed. Alou collected two doubles and Lee Maye also had two hits while Dave Roberts slammed two doubles and a single for the Colts.

Tony Cloninger, 4-5, got the victory but needed ninth-inning relief help when Houston pushed across two runs.

King's three-homer salvo and a pinch-hit homer by Don Zimmer all came with the bases empty. That left the Senators one run short.

The A's got a homer from Ed Charles in the first, then put it away with a four-run eighth-inning uprising. Rocky Colavito singled in two runs before George Alusik wrapped up the rally with a two-run homer. Moe Drabowsky got the victory, his first since April 25, and snapped a seven-game losing streak.

Wagner, who brought his RBI total to 46, and Bob Chance hit back-to-back homers in the eighth after singles by Joe Azcue and Dick Houser around a sacrifice had provided the tying run for the Indians. Chance's homer was his fourth in four games.

The Angels had taken a 3-2 lead in the seventh, chasing rookie Sonny Siebert, who had a four-hit shutout through six innings.

Dave Wickensham, tagged for Harmon Killebrew's 16th homer won his seventh game after failing on three previous tries, but needed Larry Sherry's relief help.

Pension Plan Coming In AFL

NEW YORK (AP)—A pension and insurance plan covering players, coaches and trainers in the American Football League has been put in motion, Commissioner Joe Foss announced today.

Foss, after a meeting with Ralph Wilson, Buffalo Bills' owner and head of the league's insurance program, and Tom Addison, president of the AFL Association, said the group will meet with league attorneys next month to complete details.

The pension feature will cover all players, coaches and trainers with five years time and will be retroactive to 1960, the league's first year. The pension, which will be steadily increased in future years, presently assures the players $10 a month for each year of service.

Each player also will receive a life insurance policy of $12,000. The hospitalization plan will be on a 12-month basis for all players who survive the final squad cuts on Sept. 10.

Most of the money to pay the cost will come from receipts of the championship and All-Star games.

Girls To Begin Softball Season

The Girls Softball League will officially open Wednesday night with Brown's Sinclair Service meeting the Nurses at Royce Park at 6:30. State Bank clashes with Sayllys on Thursday and a Sunday doubleheader at Royce Park rounds out the week's schedule. Brown's Sinclair and Bay de Noc College meet in the preliminary at 1:30 with Ludington Motors facing the Nurses in the finale at 3.

The Girls softball program was reactivated last year after a lapse of twelve years. Five teams competed and the league enjoyed a highly successful season which wound up with an exciting tournament held over the Labor Day weekend.

State Bank won the league championship with a record of 14 wins and 2 losses. The Nurses survived a grueling double-elimination tournament, defeating State Bank twice in a row to capture the playoff title and the trophy.

The league moves into its second season of competition with six teams. Returning from last year are the Nurses, State Bank, Sayllys (last year's Crusaders), Brown's Sinclair Service (last year's Astronauts) and Ludington Motors (last year's Jugs). The new entry is Bay de Noc College.

In tomorrow night's opener Sue VanEffen will be on the mound for Brown's Sinclair Service and Betty Thorsen will handle pitching chores for the Nurses.

Larry Shanahan has been engaged as umpire for the season.

In his foursome were Al Kidd, Ed Gravelle and Chuck Peltier. Feller used a 5-iron into a strong wind from the back tee on No. 7.

THE DEPENDABLES: SUCCESS CARS OF '64

Not all leaders are born

some are made

The rather handsome car above is what you might call a two-time winner. Dodge led the nation in percentage sales increase last year and continues to set and smash these lofty sales marks in 1964. It's also called a 1964 Dodge. Or the low-priced car that doesn't look like one or feel like one. People who have bought one, and who, incidentally, are trading in all kinds of other cars in record numbers, say they like: 1. The looks. 2. The roomy and rather posh interiors. 3. The extra savings of its famous Slant Six.

4. The lively V8 that goes on regular gas. 5. The self-adjusting brakes and 32,000-mile interval between major grease jobs. 6. The solid way it's put together—with a fully unitized, rust-protected body. 7. The price (right with Ford and Chevy).

If these seem like pretty good reasons for buying a car, join the swinging trend-setters who are changing the look and feel of the low-price field. You'll find them at your Dependable Dodge Dealer's.

Tigers Shake Slump; Kaline Back In Form

DETROIT (AP)—One game doesn't make a season, but it would take a long time to convince the Minnesota Twins the Detroit Tigers are a floundering seventh-place club.

Sparked by the surging Al Kaline, the Tigers clobbered the Twins 10-5 Monday night and beat the usually heavy-hitting visitors at their own game—the home run.

Kaline collected three more hits to raise his average to .288—a gain of 33 percentage points since last Friday.

But it was Kaline's fielding which brought the sparse crowd of 7,935 to its feet to applaud him warmly for probably the first time this season.

Kaline grabbed Bernie Allen's hard hit to right off the screen in the third inning and threw a perfect strike to second to hold the Minnesota speedster to a single.

But that was a routine play compared to his game-saver in the eighth.

The Twins loaded the bases after scoring one run on a walk and errors by relief pitcher Larry Sherry and Don Wert, and had narrowed the gap to 7-5.

Sherry struck out Lenny Green when you meet the ball right, but it's those soft ones that drop that help.

"It's still a long way to go," Kaline added, indicating that he'd feel more comfortable hitting over 300 again.

The Tigers got an added lift from Don Demeter who hit a two-run homer in the first inning and added a two-run single in the eighth to put the game out of reach.

"Charlie (Manager Charlie Dressen) embarrassed me in the team meeting today," Demeter said. "He told me to swing at the ball and not punch, even if I struck out every time. I had to go out and do something."

After the Twins had tied the score 2-2 with a pair of runs in the second, Norm Cash unloaded his 10th homer of the season in the bottom of the inning to chase home three runs and put Detroit ahead for keeps.

The Tigers committed four errors in the contest, two more than Minnesota. But the misdeeds were forgotten as the Tigers savored their second triumph in the last 10 games.

Dave Wickersham was particularly happy, picking up his seventh victory after failing three times to reach the goal. One of the hits off him was a towering homer into the center-field bleachers by Harmon Killebrew.

Jim Roland, the first of five Twins' hurlers, was the loser.

Wert and George Thomas each had two hits as the Tigers had a dozen safeties in running up their highest score of the season.

Denny McLain (0-0) and Jim Kaat (5-2) were the probable pitchers for tonight's game.

Charles Finley Buys Blue Moon And A Catfish

By The Associated Press

Charles Finley has bought a Catfish for $75,000.

But then last week he paid the same amount for a Blue Moon.

No, the owner of the Kansas City Athletics isn't about to spring some more gimmicks on the American League, he's merely indulging in baseball's battle of the dollar for the nation's top young prospects.

James (Catfish) Hunter, an 18-year-old pitcher from Hertford, N.C., was Finley's latest addition to his growing list of bonus babies. Last week, the A's signed another pitcher for a bonus in the $75,000 area, Johnny Lee (Blue Moon) Odum, a 19-year-old from Macon, Ga.

Hunter was one of nine hopefuls signed by major league clubs Monday as the tempo began to build toward the usual series of $100,000 signings that follow college graduations in June.

Hunter, a 6-foot-1, 190-pound right-hander, pitched five shutouts in the past two seasons with the Pergumans County High School team. In one 12-inning game this spring he struck out 29 batters. He has an over-all record of 26-2.

At the same time, the Cleveland Indians paid a reported $60,000 for infielder Ralph Michael Gagliano of Memphis, 17-year-old brother of Phil Gagliano, an infielder with the St. Louis Cardinals. The Indians said the younger Gagliano had been sought by 17 major league clubs.

The Minnesota Twins signed Eddie Hill, a right-handed pitcher from Bristol, Tenn., and Mickey Hagen, a shortstop from Twin Valley, Minn. They were in the $10,000-$20,000 range.

The New York Mets got the most, possibly for the least. Given modest outlays were Gary Haverly, a shortstop who Kan., second baseman Dave Miller, out of Wake Forest; infielder Francis Raley, from Baltimore Junior College, and two pitchers, Ron Taylor, University of Houston, and James Bethke, Kansas City.

Boston Raids Muscle Mill

MONTREAL (AP)—The Boston Bruins, trapped in the National Hockey League cellar the past four seasons, have sharpened their teeth for a 1964-65 crashout attempt by raiding Chicago's muscle mill.

The Bruins acquired rangy Ab McDonald and pugnacious Reg Fleming from the Black Hawks Monday in exchange for veteran defenseman Doug Mohns. The trade was the first major deal completed at the annual NHL meetings here.

The new Bruins, both 28-year-old forwards, are no teddy bears.

McDonald, 6-foot-2 and 190 pounds, was a 20-goal scorer on the Hawks' Scooter Line for two years before slipping to a 14-goal total in 1963-64. He had 32 assists, however, and is the established playmaker Boston has been seeking to complete a left-wing corps that includes Johnny Bucyk and Dean Prentice.

Ab, a former Montreal Canadian, has a career total of 95 goals and 143 assists.

Fleming, a 5-foot-10, 180-pound fireplug, made his mark as a penalty-prone penalty killer in three years with Chicago. He is another product of the Montreal system and has played defense as well as left wing and center. He holds the NHL single-game record for penalty minutes, 37, and logged 140 minutes during the 1963-64 campaign.

Mohns, 30, was a blueline fixture in Boston for 11 seasons. Used occasionally as a forward he scored nine goals and 17 assists last season.

Hutch Rejoins Reds Following Medical Check

SEATTLE (AP)—Fred Hutchinson, manager of the Cincinnati Reds, was given a checkup of a cancerous growth in his chest Monday and headed for Los Angeles today to join his team.

Just before the examination, he said the outcome of the examination would decide whether he could rejoin the Reds or had to stay in Seattle a while.

He said he felt about the same as he did after receiving massive radiation treatment for six weeks early this year in Swedish Hospital's Tumor Institute in Seattle.

Dr. Orlass Wildermuth, head of the Tumor Institute, said he considered Fred's examination a routine checkup.

IRONWOOD — Dedication ceremonies of the Michigan State Highway Department's new Tourist Information Center on the Michigan-Wisconsin border here will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday.

Officials from cities and counties throughout the Upper Peninsula, the tourist industry and the Highway Department will participate in flag raising ceremonies and a luncheon.

The new Information Center is located in a 28-acre Roadside Park on U.S. 2 about 500 feet east of the Michigan-Wisconsin state line at the Montreal River on the east edge of Ironwood.

Deputy State Highway Commissioner Frederick E. Tripp and Kenneth Slater of Newberry, president of the Upper Peninsula Tourist Association will take part in the dedication.

John Murray, public information director for the State Highway Department, will be principal speaker at the joint luncheon meeting of the Ironwood Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs.

Construction of a Tourist Information Center here was first proposed 25 years ago. In 1939, the City of Ironwood deeded a tract of land on U.S. 2 near the Montreal River to the Highway Department as a site.

Scandal Girl, 22, Released From British Prison

LONDON (AP) — Christine Keeler, 22, the red-haired prostitute who once shook the British government, was released from Holloway Prison Monday.

She had served six months of a nine-month sentence for perjury and conspiring to obstruct justice. She had tried to frame a Negro ex-lover, jazz singer Aloysius (Lucky) Gordon, with testimony that he beat her up.

Christine's perjury trial was part of the aftermath of a sex and security scandal which brought John D. Profumo's resignation as war minister a year ago and threatened to tumble Prime Minister Harold Macmillan from power. Macmillan rode out the storm but resigned a few months later because of his health.

Christine got three months off her sentence for good behavior.

PEST TRIUMPHS — Alfalfa weevil, above, new in Illinois this year, has spread to 10 of the state's southern counties. Infestation is extremely difficult to fight.

Lawsuit Against AMC Dismissed

DETROIT (AP) — A New York City stockholder's suit against Gov. George W. Romney and American Motors Corp., was dismissed in U.S. District Court Monday.

Judge Theodore Levin threw out the case after plaintiff Ruth Mintz failed to answer questions prepared by the company and sent to her in July of last year.

Miss Mintz, bringing suit in October, 1962, asked an accounting of bonus arrangements under which Romney resigned as American Motors president to enter politics.

Banker To Head Scientist Sect

A call to use "spiritual power" to help solve the world's "thorny problems of human relations and race inequalities" greeted Christian Scientists at their annual meeting in Boston. Several thousand members from many states and countries attended the meeting at the Mother Church, First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

A message from the Christian Science Board of Directors reaffirmed the church's conviction that the mightiest force on earth is "the still small voice of universal Christian idealism."

Election of Edward Froderman as new president of the church for the coming year was announced. His address described "spiritual perception" as a necessity for meeting today's great human responsibilities.

Mr. Froderman is a former vice-president of a Chicago bank, resigning in 1949 to enter the public practice of Christian Science healing. He moved to Boston in 1956 to serve as manager of the church's Department of Branches and Practitioners. In 1961, he was appointed as a trustee of the Christian Science Publishing Society, a position he still holds.

The new church president is a native of Bad-Salzuffen, Germany, emigrating to the United States as a teen-ager. Living with relatives in Chicago, Mr. Froderman soon became interested in Christian Science and enrolled in the Sunday School. He went on to become first reader and board chairman at First Church of Christ, Scientist, Chicago.

Revived religious stirrings in Eastern Europe were reported to the meeting by the clerk, Gordon V. Comer. Applications from this region for membership in the Mother Church have begun to arrive again, ending many years of no communication, he said.

The retiring president, Mrs. Helen Wood Bauman, noted the "unlimited possibilities" open to humanity through the "healing-power of goodness"—the power "inherent in justice, mercy, truthfulness, and love" to overcome sin and disease. This is "natural rather than miraculous," said Mrs. Bauman, editor of the church's religious periodicals.

Closed-circuit television was used for the first time at the meeting, which annually draws an attendance of about 7,000 members, accommodated in four different auditoriums.

They heard reports from several church departments — including an announcement that more copies of Mrs. Eddy's book "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" were sold during the past year than in any other year since its first publication (1875).

The report told of an unusual innovation recently adopted as part of the church's effort to communicate a religious message effectively "to a large general audience. People who are not Christian Scientists are being used as interviewers — with no script — to bring out questions that listeners would want to hear answered by the church speaker on a given subject."

Establishment of a new Christian Science Society in Nigeria during the past year brought to 54 the number of countries where branches of the church are located. New cards and folders are being published for the first time in Hungarian, Arabic, and Hebrew. A new Greek edition of the church's periodical, "The Herald of Christian Science," was also announced.

About 4,500 Christian Science lectures were given all over the world since last June, more than ever before in a single year. The names of three new appointees to the 29-member Board of Lectureship were also announced during the day: Martin N. Heffer of Houston, Thomas O. Poyser of Boston, and Harry S. Smith of Atlanta.

He also was director and committee of the National Classified Advertising Managers Association.
